1. Narrative description of the Prop 28 arts education program(s) funded. (2500 character limit).

During the 2024–2025 school year, the district sustained its commitment to high-quality arts education and maintaining broad access to music instruction. All third-grade students received general music instruction, while fourth- and fifth-grade students had the opportunity to participate in instrumental music and/or choir electives. At the middle school level, students engaged in a comprehensive music program that included Beginning, Intermediate, and Advanced Band, Music Appreciation, Choir, Symphonic Band, Orchestra, and Guitar. Additionally, elementary Visual and Media Arts teachers facilitated standards-based instruction to all first- through fifth-grade students. These efforts reflect the district's continued investment in whole-child education and ensure meaningful opportunities for creative expression, artistic skill development, and engagement in the arts across multiple grade levels.
