Our Governing Board in Action

During the month of November the Menifee Union School District Governing Board took the following actions: Approved the Governing Board calendar; Established the second and fourth Tuesday of each month, at 4:30PM as the regular meeting time of the Governing Board; Elected Mr. Jerry Bowman as Governing Board President, Mr. Reg Bennett as Vice President, Dr. Randy Freeman as Clerk, Mr. Ron Ulibarri as deputy Clerk, and Mr. Bob O'Donnell will continue as a Member of the Governing Board, these positions will take effect at the 1st Governing Board meeting in January; approved the Interim Assistant Superintendent of Business Services Contract of Mrs. Pam Luzon.

Presentations

Freedom Crest Elementary School Principal, Mrs. Linda Hickey, and Assistant Principal, Ericka Bermudez, (above) presented a snapshot of their school. They highlighted the use of Chromebooks in the classroom, by both students and teachers. The students are developing coding skills, collaborative learning practices. These are the skills the students will need in the workforce of the future. The presentation ended with a group of students saying, "We love the hour of code!"

Superintendent, Dr. Steve Kennedy, administered the oath of office of MUSD Governing Board Member, to Mr. Robert "Bob" O'Donnell, and Mr. Reg Bennett. Both ran unopposed in the June 2015 election.

Mr. O'Donnell was given a small gift of appreciation for his service as Governing Board President for the past year.

Dr. Kennedy announced that the new home of the MUSD, scheduled to open in the Spring, will be named the Menifee Union School District Robert "Bob" O'Donnell District Education Center.
